

Incident Name: Coronado NF Physical Training Incident (2021)

State: Arizona

Date: 4/17/21

Incident Type: Medical or Exertion or Heat

Description of the Incident:

After completing physical training, a wildland firefighter, who is also a U.S. Forest Service EMT, self-assessed rhabdomyolysis symptoms, drove self to hospital after work, was evaluated and released, and placed on light duty for a week.

[This data was provided by the USFS Weekly Summary Report.]