

Incident Name: Burnt Peak Fire Medevac (2021)

State: Montana

Date: 7/14/21

Incident Type: Medical or Exertion or Heat

Description of the Incident:

On the Burnt Peak Fire on the Kootenai National Forest, a contracted employee experienced chest pain, dizziness, and numbness. U.S. Forest Service EMTs provided first aid and evaluated the patient. This medical incident was categorized as "Red". Both an ambulance and Life Flight were ordered. The patient was transferred to the ambulance and then to Life Flight which flew to the Kootenai Medical Center in Coeur d' Alene, Idaho.

[This data was provided by the USFS Weekly Summary Report.]