36 W. 6TH ST.
EMPORIUM, PA.

AL KULECK - "They should never have been sent. They were tired. I think they were supposed to have at least 6 hours rest. I remember Basil Bogush, who spoke in broken English, said to me before he got on the truck 'I no want to go. I tired.'

Kuleck saw several of the bodies. He said "The only one I could identify was Mohnrey. And that only because of his size. They were burned beyond recognition. - like a potatoe pulled from a fire."

→ SINNEMAHONING - ENROLLEE

BILL KEPHART - "I left camp to help at the fire. The first body I saw was Mohnrey. That was enough for me, I was done. There was a spot on the ground where he was laying. The grease was cooked out of him." ON DAMICO - "When he was let out of the hospital (Reed in Wash. D. C.) he came back to the camp. His hands were ~~scared~~ scorched. The skin on them was thin."
